| SPECTACULAR 1094 | | PORTRAIT OF HOLMES by Barbara Sherman Swanson This whimsical, detailed map of Holmes was commissioned specifically in celebration of the Holmes 70th Anniversary. It is a one-of-a-king original pen and ink drawing by the beloved artist Barbara Swanson Sherman, a member of First Presbyterian Church of New York City. In intricate detail, Barbara has depicted the many buildings, activities, animals and landscape - durin gthe day and night and in all four seasons - that make Holmes (and Barbara's work) so special! If it was not extraordinary enough, Barbara has included many Biblical references in the piece for you to explore. Donated by Barbara Swanson Sherman. | PRICELESSII | $ 2,000 | $ 100 | |

| 101 | | EXQUISITE, FINELY CRAFTED NECKLACE by Tagliamonte Vincenza This stunning necklace, which is 100% handmade in Italy, consists of seven citrine cabochons with total carat weight of 70 and six intaglios (cameos) made of Venetian glass, which are set in precious metal sterling siver plated in 18K gold (1 micron/high plating standard). Indaglio (Cameo) Details: Purple: Cupid on a veil boat/ image from a Neoclassical mould. Aqua: Nues Neolcassical (1700 AD). Cobalt Blue: Medusa Head/Victorian Age (1850 AD). Green: Medusa Head/ Baroque Age Mould (1600 AD). Pink: Muse. Baby Blue: Pandora with Urn/ Neoclassical (1700 AD) The owner of Tagliamonte Vincenza, Mr. Nino Tagliamonte, curated this beautiful necklace especially for the Benefit Dinner. Tagliamonte Vicenza is bringing back a manufacturing style as old as Mesopotamia. Venetian Glass moulded into cameso or intaglios, are a part of jewelry history that in recent years has been largely ignored. The style can be traced back as far as the Mesopotamians, but was further developed by craftsmen from the ancient Roman colony of Aquileia. Mr. Nino Tagliamonte, with two Venetian artists, dedicated five years of research to this project using authentic 18th century plaster matrix carvings. After numerous attempts, they rediscovered and successfully experimented with original Roman blending, processing and casting methods.
