Retreat Dates, Leaders and Fees

Retreat #1 February 17- 18, 2017

"I'm on a Mission"
Your Passion, Your Purpose, Your Path

Leader: Rev. Janice Moore-Caputo, Pastor, Malverne and North Shore Presbyterian Churches

Jesus had a mission statement that he had come so we could live our life to the fullest (John 10:10). He knew what he stood for and he knew what to let go of. Through games, activities, talks and personal time, we'll each experience the power of knowing what and who we stand for in the world today.

Retreat #3 April 28 - 29, 2016

"Serving Community"

Leaders: Leif Frymire and Mindy Vande Brake, Young Adult Volunteers serving New York City
 Rev. Aqueelah Ligonde, New York City Young Adult Volunteer Site Coordinator

God calls us to live in Christian community, and share the talents and gifts we are given with those around us. Explore the ways we can serve God as part of the family of God with the Young Adult Volunteers serving communities in New York City and with youth from other churches.

Retreat #2 March 17 - 18, 2017

"Setting Your Face on God's Ministry"

Leader: Rev. Ryan Kersting-Schlimgen, Pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Liberty

As he set out to complete his earthly mission, Jesus set his face upon Jerusalem, and was resolute in accomplishing his task. In doing so, Jesus took the most direct route -- directly through Samaria even though this was not the typical practice of a Jew. Even though he received resistance, he did not cease in his teaching as he went. How often does our service of the Lord call for us to take the road less traveled... to place ourselves in the midst of those who don't believe what we believe... to face resistance in God's service? In carrying out Christ's ministry in the world, we will face these challenges, are we prepared?

Fee:

$100 per person
