Women's Retreat
November 4 - 6, 2016

or a Day Retreat November 5, 2016

Jesus meets a woman at a well and what follows is one of the most intriguing conversations in all of Scripture. Who was the woman at the well? This is an incredibly detailed and unique dialogue with Jesus that invites us into the presence of this person who changes people's lives. What do we learn from their encounter? How do we engage Jesus with the same frankness and curiosity? How are we transformed when we spend time with Jesus at the well?

Join us for this year's women's retreat as we explore this passage from the book of John. The Gospel of John has come with it's own historical and cultural baggage, but together can we explore this book anew and learn what it has to offer us today.

Abbie Huff has her Bachelor of Arts from Duke University and a Master of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary. Abbie is originally from outside Philadelphia, but after seminary she served as minister of adult education to a large church in Dallas, Texas until following a call to pursue less traditional forms of ministry.

Abbie is currently the Spiritual Leader for the Nyack Project, a ministry that focuses on building community outside the walls of the church. Dreamed up and funded through the work of several Hudson River Presbyterian ministers, the idea sprang out of Acts 11 and the challenge to follow the Holy Spirit and engage people where they are. The Nyack Project's dream is to build community and engage the faith life of those who would not normally walk through the doors of a church building. You can find out more about the project by emailing Abbie at abbiehuff@gmail.com, or check out the website at thenyackproject.com.
